January Newsletter

Welcome to the First Edition of 2019 of the monthly Camerons Stiff & Co e-newsletter, where we will be featuring some interesting reading material and links to the properties we have available both For Sale & To Rent, along with a selection of New Homes information.

Lettings

WHY LET WITH US? When deciding to let your home or investment property, it is vitally important to employ a professional, established lettings agent to handle the process for you to give you complete peace of mind.

Market Analysis

Millennial Generation

According to analysis produced by the Resolution Foundation, parental wealth has now developed into one of the determining factors whether young people in the United Kingdom own a home or not since the financial crisis – demonstrating the current inequality in the housing market.

Tenants Fee Bill

With the number of renters across the UK higher than ever before and with ever-more tenants forecast to enter the property market over the next decade, the Government is taking steps to ensure that those who cannot afford to purchase their own property receive a fair deal when renting.
